Foreword!!

Just as the ocean appears calm and peaceful on the surface, so O.G.H.S. appears like any other high school. Yet, just as in the ocean, the actual life of a school is not seen in the surface things, such as the buildings, but in the students and the faculty, the real heart of the school.

The waves of the ocean break, one upon the other, to make the rising tide. So the years here at Orange Glen follow one after the other, each representing a step towards maturity and adulthood.

The undercurrents of the ocean make it strong and powerful. So the cultivation of young minds makes our school and our country strong.

For the first year in its short history, Orange Glen has a graduating senior class. In the years to come we can look forward to a new class of young adults, endlessly striving for their place in the world, as the waves endlessly break upon the sand.

The members of the Torch Staff have strived to show the changing life of Orange Glen for the past year by relating it to the ocean--its strength, beauty, and its never ending abundance of wealth.

I hope I have you in a few of my classes next year. If so sit next to me so we can compare answers.

Dedication

Three years ago Orange Glen High School was a mere structure lacking in traditions, goals and achievements. Gradually our school began to expand and take its future shape. As the years progressed the student body showed increasing spirit and continued to make Orange Glen a school of which they could be proud. Much of the credit for these advancements is due to the students whose hard work and leadership transformed a few buildings into a united body, strong, willing and ready to spur forward.

Graduating this June are many of the students, who diligently and conscientiously strived to fill Orange Glen with bursting spirit and high honors. To you seniors, in view of all you have done to make our school a privilege to attend, we dedicate the 1965 Torch.

OUR GUIDING LIGHT FOR THE QUEST OF KNOWLEDGE.

Dear Students,

Quite often the criticism is voiced that the teenager of today does not follow a worthy set of goals, is a carefree and careless individual living a day to day existence, is a selfish individual with no thought given to the welfare of his fellowman or to the country which has given him so much. These same criticisms were advanced fifty years ago, a hundred years ago and, yes, even several hundred years ago. The criticism of today's teenagers is as questionable now as it was in the past.

It is true that a certain small percentage of students in our own district fall into the category described in the preceding paragraph. However, those working closely with students realize that the percentage is small and that the vast majority of students are striving to achieve and live by a worthy set of goals. As evidence we point with pride to the achievements, attitudes, spirit of cooperation and self-discipline of our students which is worthy of commendation in every respect.

We are proud of your records and achievements. We especially congratulate members of the Class of '65 for their leadership during the past four years.

Regards,

G. W. Quade

Mr. Patrick V. Ross
Principal

Growth and progress have been the hallmark of 1965. Growth in population and the means to support these millions; growth in the opportunities afforded all Americans to live together with greater respect for human dignity and greater tolerance for human shortcomings. We have seen great progress in the sciences; a renewed appreciation for the arts; indeed, we have seen progress in every area of man's endeavor.

Growth and progress are, likewise, the hallmark of Orange Glen High School. Recall that just three short years ago, Orange Glen High School opened its doors to a student body of just under four hundred and fifty students. Our new campus was filled to capacity and there was much work to be done. We now have a student population of just over ten hundred and fifty. Our campus is filled to capacity and there is still much work to be done. The task before us, however, will be accomplished! The dedication and demonstrated excellence of the class of 1965 will serve as a standard and an incentive to all future "Patriots".

It is with a deep sense of pride and gratification that I extend congratulations and bid farewell to the young ladies and gentlemen of our first graduating class. I am confident that your pursuit of excellence will continue throughout your lives.

Sincerely,

Patrick V. Ross

The Library--center of academic life at Orange Glen.

Life at Orange Glen has many sides but, as in other schools, the most important aspect is academic. Under the capable direction of Mr. W.P. Radney, Orange Glen's curriculum offers well planned courses in two main areas. For those preparing for employment upon graduation, a general pattern is offered, and for those seeking further education, college preparatory classes. Required for each student is one year of math and science, three years of social studies and English, four years of physical education, a class in first aid, and driver education. The aim of these required courses is to produce responsible, mature citizens who are able to make the best of their future. In addition, students are able to take advantage of modern teaching methods and equipment in the various electives. Elective classes are presented in the areas of art, music, business, speech, shop, dramatics, language, drafting, homemaking, math, social courses, journalism, and science. The variety of subjects offered at Orange Glen is great. With the help of student counselors, each student is able to plan a course of study tailored to his own needs.

Patriot Gridders

In every football season there is always one game that people remember as the most thrilling. This season, the game at Vista High School turned out to be the most outstanding. The Patriots entered this game as under-dogs, however at the end of the contest the Pats were out in front, 7-6, due to tremendous determination and spirit.

The Patriots started out the season on more or less the right foot when they battled Poway to a scoreless tie. However, in the second contest, powerful Lincoln of San Diego traveled to Memorial Field for another game that will live in the eyes of Patriot rooters for years to come. The Pat's again were dubbed as heavy under-dogs, and eventually succumbed to the more experienced and faster Lincoln Hornets by a score of 20-6, however not before staging one of the best fights in the short history of Orange Glen.

Orange Glen seemed well-armed for their fight to finish high in the standings of the tough Avocado League. However, because of many early season injuries and other unforeseen circumstances, the Pat's wound up with a disappointing record of two wins and seven losses.

Individual honors given to the Patriots for Player of the Week were presented to Dave Johnson twice, John Rinehart, Ira Chaffin, captains Norm Johnston and Mike McPhee, Bob Chimarusti, Butch Callendar and Jim Geoppinger.

Also, Dave Johnson, while capturing two Player of the Week awards, was voted into the All-Avocado League defensive team. A great honor for anyone.

These players, coupled with the other twenty-nine team members, fought on for tradition and honor at Orange Glen High School.

Fought On....

Veteran coaches Tom Bice and Dick Disney are seen discussing the Player of the Week Plaque with the newest addition to Orange Glen's coaching staff, Dale Denton.

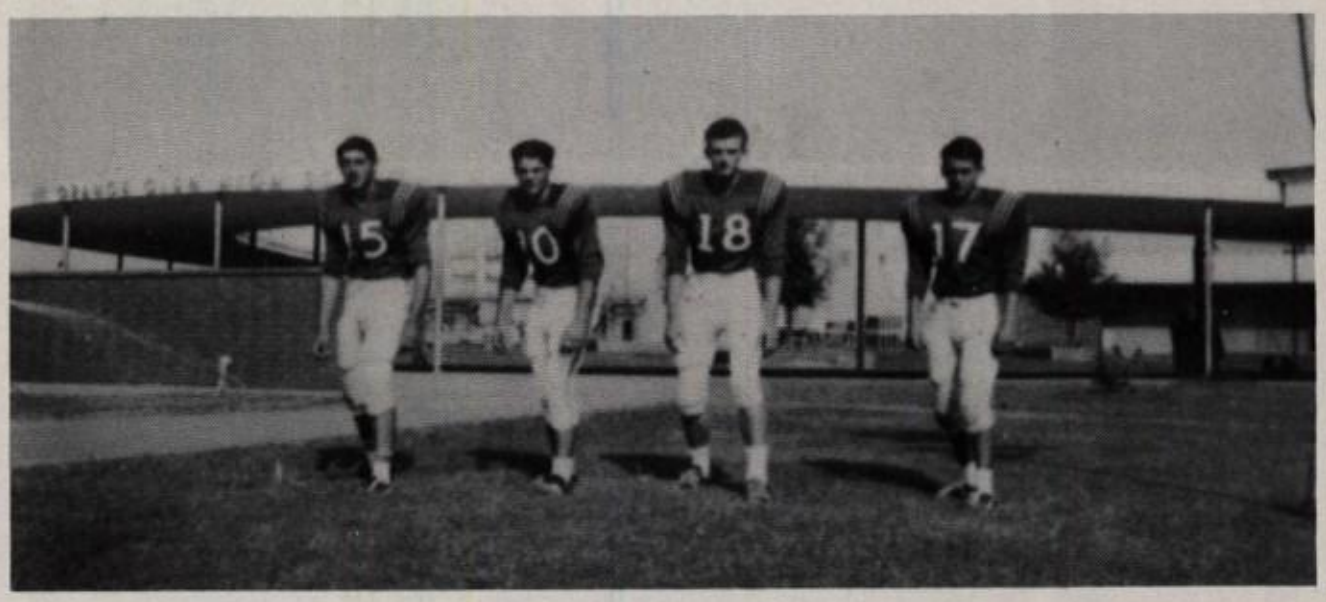
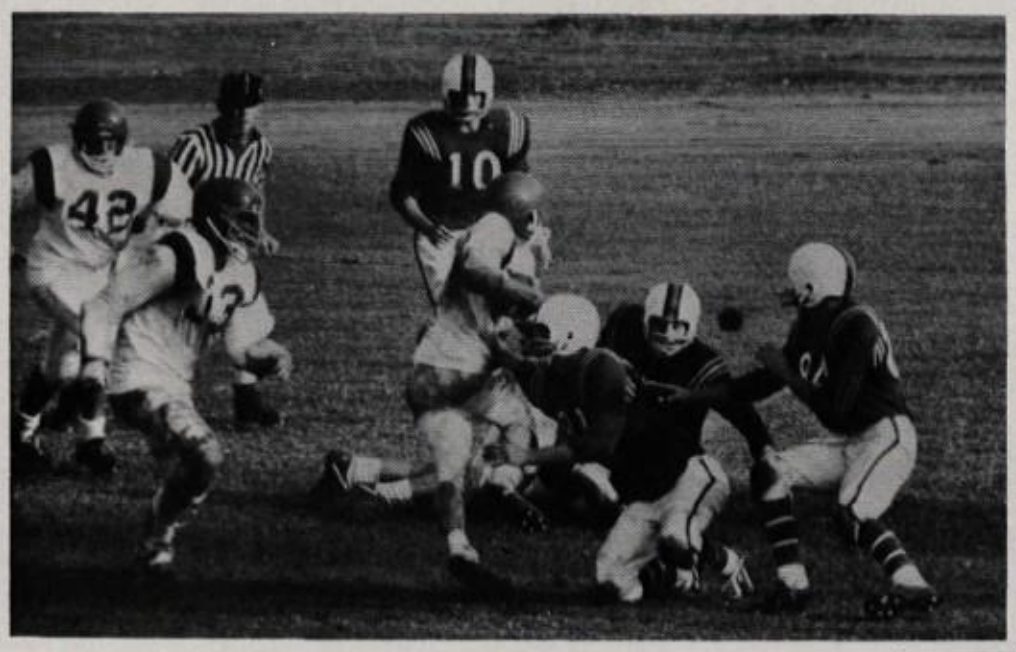
Patriots of Orange Glen Fought on... for Their Alma Mater

PATRIOT'S OFFENSIVE TEAM: Linemen; Greg Penfold, Mike McPhee, Jack Ford, Buzz Pence, Larry Evans, Norm Johnston, Butch Callander. Backs; Dave Johnson, Ira Chaffin, Ken Martin, Denis Dunn.



PATRIOT DEFENSIVE BACKS: Allen Thompson, Butch Callendar, Ira Chaffin, and Gary Urdahl. All did a fine job.

Johnston and Johnson, Patriots tough linebackers, both nominated for All-League.



A pack of Patriot tacklers swarm around a Poway runner as he is stopped for a short gain. This was done many times by the Pats, as Poway was held scoreless.

Denis Dunn, speedy wingback, charged down the sidelines for a 40 yard kick-off return against the eager San Clemente opponents.

A powerful group of the Patriot defense is shown ripping a Poway runner, as Ira Chaffin, Norm Johnston, and Greg Penfold are charging in for the kill.

Denis Dunn slips past several San Clemente Tacklers, as he uses some of his razzle-dazzle running for a fine gain.

JV Displayed Courage

Most Valuable Player Dan Huff is seen sweeping right end, against University High, for a twelve yard gain.

Excellent coaching divided into young, eager and determined football players equals over-all, a young, eager and determined football team. Such was our Junior Varsity football team for 1964.

Head coach, Dave Parker, along with his fine assistant Paul Watts, guided the young Pats to a record of 4 wins and 4 losses.

Led by Most Valuable Player Dan Huff, Captain Jim West and some excellent blocking and tackling by the rest of the team, the JV's trampled their first three opponents by decisive scores.

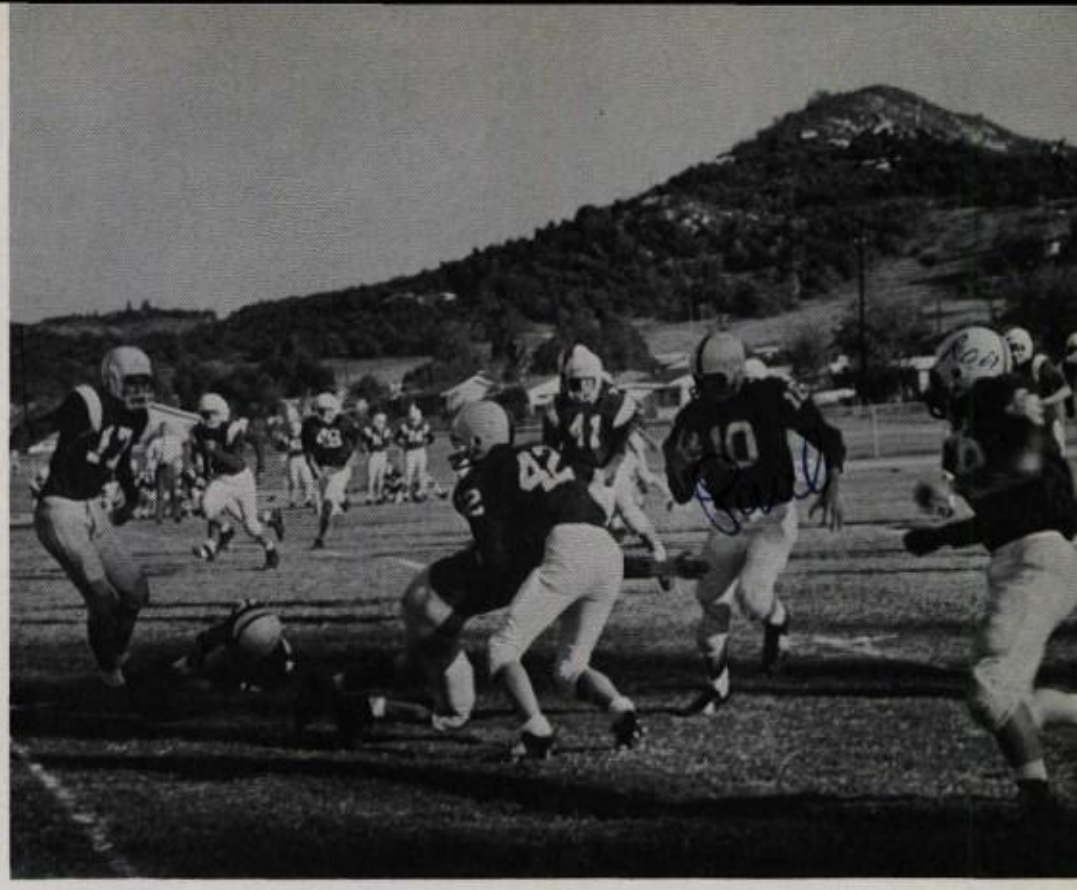
In actual league play, the JV, in one of the most exciting games of the season, ripped arch-rival San Dieguito by a score of 6 to 0.

Football teams in the future look tremendously bright for Orange Glen High.

Behind the able leadership of coaches Dave Chappie and Bill Wetzell, this year's Frosh were a sure bet to better the past performances of Freshmen teams in the past.

Led by quarterback Paul Moyneur, end Albert Sanchez and linebacker Jerry Fenton, the Frosh molded a tremendous season's record of 6 wins, 1 loss and 1 tie.

Patriots of Orange Glen can be confident that this year's Freshmen, in years to come will fight hard for their Alma Mater.



With the help of some excellent Frosh blocking, quarterback Paul Moyneur is shown running for a fine gain.

Due to a tremendous team effort and the excellent leadership of Coach Wetzell, Orange Glen's Varsity basketball team displayed outstanding potential in its first year in the tough Avocado League. After a slow start, the Patriots began to move, with good showings in both the Perris and Fallbrook Tournaments. At the end of pre-season play they had molded a record of 7 wins and 5 losses.

In basketball, as in football, the Patriots played their most exciting game in league competition against Vista High School. Playing in our gym, these never-say-die Patriots battled the Panthers down to the end of the game, finally succumbing by a 57-56 score. This was the closest the Patriots came to winning a game in the tough Avocado League. While playing with determination and showing tremendous potential, Orange Glen's Patriots did much to uphold the reputation of sportsmanship and resolution in every sport they entered.

Several individuals played well for the Patriots during the 64-65 season. Ryan Wilson, realizing his potential this year, used luring fakes to outmaneuver his often taller opponents, leading the team in scoring. Richard Gillet, perhaps the most consistent player in the line-up, continually drilled the nets with his long jumpers and played well on defense. Ebb Nowry found his own at the beginning of league play and did a great job while rebounding against bigger foes. These Patriots, along with the other team members, combined in a supreme effort for Orange Glen, never giving up against more-experienced competition.

JV Hoopsters Gained Experience

As his Patriot teammates move in to assist, John Guerrieri attempts to sink a jump shot over his Oceanside opponent's outstretched arm.

This year's JV mentor was newcomer Frank Dixon. Dixon, who followed Paul Watts at the helm, showed signs of outstanding leadership as he lead the young Pats to a seasonal reading of 7 wins and 11 losses.

With inexperience going against them this year, the Junior Varsity fell to an unexpected low for overall team standings in the tough Avocado League.

Winning their first five games in six outings, the JV seemed well on their way to a successful season. However, when League play finally came, the junior Pats were unable to muster any victories. The Patriots final two triumphs came at the expense of non-league rivals Elsinore and El Cajon.

Boasting a tremendous season's record of 10 wins and 3 losses, the smallest of the Patriots at Orange Glen, the freshmen, battled each opponent with the enthusiasm and spirit that Patriots are noted for.

After dropping their first game to Ramona by a close score of 35-32, the little Pats bounced back to win their next eight in a row.

Contributing to the attack of the Frosh was their successful coach Dave Chappie. Chappie, in his second year of coaching at the Frosh level, has proved himself very capable of coaching the young athletes that will be tomorrow's varsity candidates.

The crowd is tense while watching another exciting Freshman basketball game.

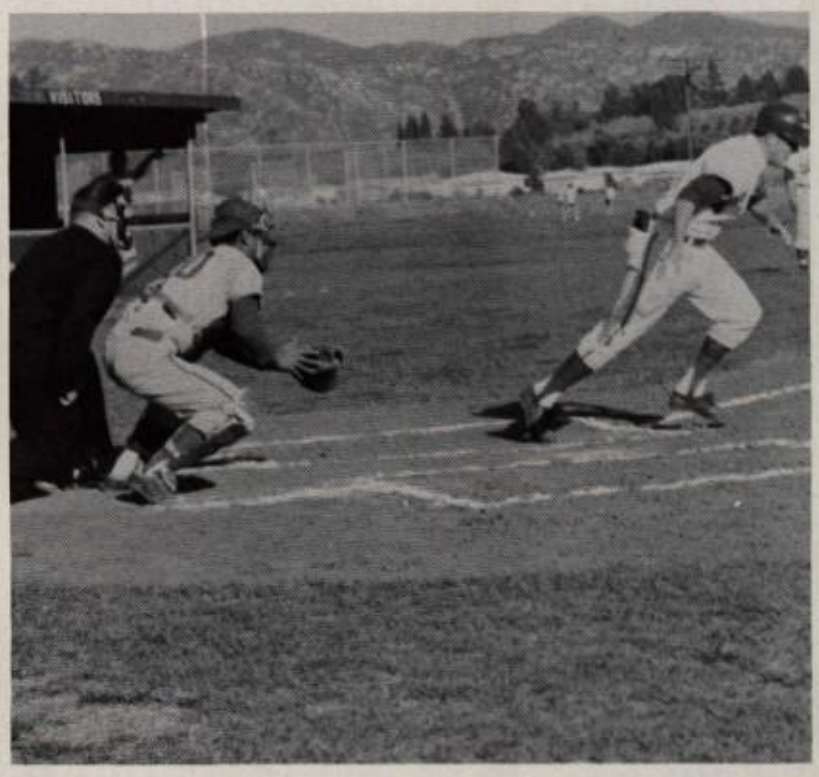
Springtime Brought Baseball

With the coming of spring, basketball equipment was put away and baseball uniforms, shoes, and gloves were brought out. The Patriots, with all of last years team returning and some good prospects up from the junior varsity showed many observers in early practices that they had a nucleus of a fine team.

However when the first two games rolled around all indications of a good team were hard to find. The Pats were thumped by Elsinore 12-3 in the first encounter and then went on to lose to Army-Navy by a score of 3-1. In the third game it was a different story, however. Again meeting Elsinore on the latters diamond, the Patriots put together timely hitting and pitching to muster a 3-0 victory.

When league competition finally arrived, the Pats were in full gear and eager to meet their rough opponents. Up to the time the Torch went to press, the leading Patriot hitter was second baseman Dennis Vinje. Catcher Ernie Olivas had been the Pat's outstanding defensive performer.

With veteran coach Tom Bice leading the way, the '65 baseball season certainly looked bright for Orange Glen.



Patriot second baseman Dennis Vinje is striding toward first base moments after singling to center field against tough Fallbrook Warriors.

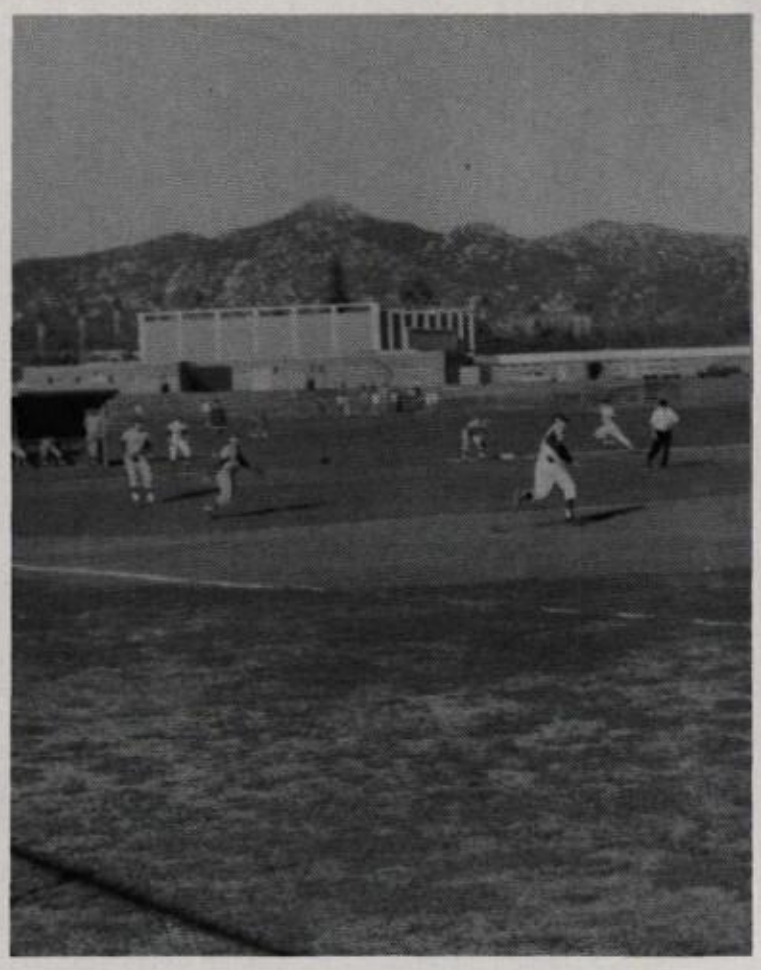
JV Showed Promise

Second baseman John McDaniels and shortstop Don Galyean are shown waiting eagerly for the results of Ron Dahms' first pitch in league play.

Expecting great things from this year's JV Baseball team, many interested fans have observed Coach Don Pusker whipping his charges into form in pre-season practices. Both old and new faces dotted the line-up as the many prospects fought for starting positions. Eagerness and desire are traits that are evident in each player as he strives to better Orange Glen's standings in the high school sport's world.

Experimenting with different players, Coach Pusker has been eager to find the right combination. With each player showing trememdous potential, Orange Glen's JV Baseball team is sure to finish high in the standings this season.



Patriot team again executes winning effort for O.G.H.S.

Outstanding determination and hustle which helped to overcome the inexperience of the newly formed Freshman baseball team were evident as the squad began early season practice.

At press time, the small Pats, under the capable coaching of Gordon Zittel, were putting up a game fight in league play.

Baseball talent in years ahead is assured at Orange Glen.

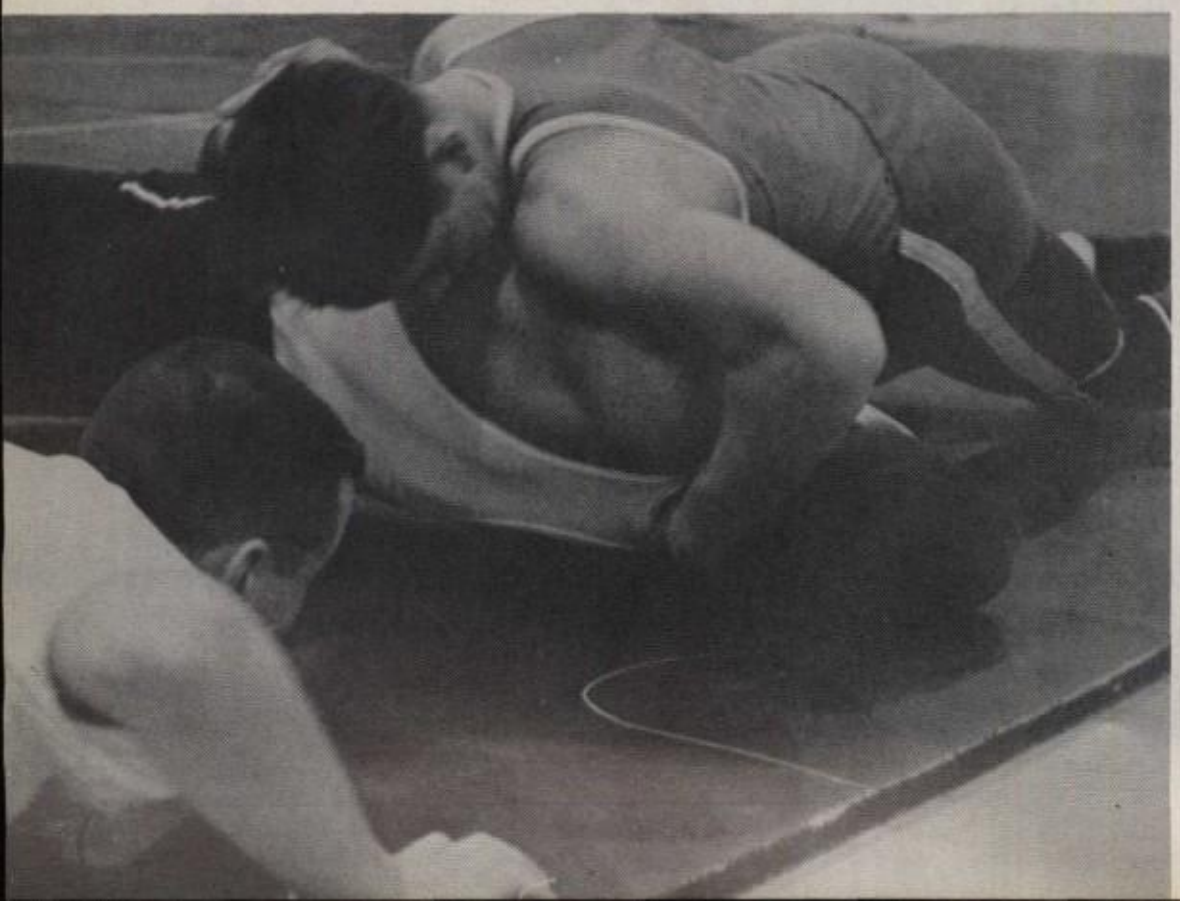
Butch Callender is shown tormenting his Fallbrook opponent as he is holding him to a near pin in the second period.



Under the expert leadership of Coach Dale Denton, Orange Glen's Varsity wrestling team this year posted its most outstanding season and displayed one of the finest showings for a varsity sport in Orange Glen's history. Denton generated a new, well deserved interest in wrestling in Patriot sports fans, as his team compiled a season's record of 8 wins and 4 losses and an admirable 4 and 2 slate in league competition. The Patriot grapplers accomplished a tie for second in their first year in the tough, Avocado League, losing only to the more experienced Vista and Oceanside teams.

Several matmen showed well for Orange Glen in tournaments and post-season matches. Of these, Bruce Eldridge, elected next year's captain by his teammates, faired best with victories in both the Vista and Avocado League Tournaments. He also progressed to the SD-CIF finals before being defeated. Norm Johnston, most valuable wrestler this year, also posted wins in the Vista and Avocado League Tournaments and missed CIF in the last ten seconds of a hotly disputed match. Rick Bucknum was another Patriot who displayed exceptional desire as he was chosen most improved wrestler on this year's team. Many other Patriots showed maximum effort while leading out matmen to the excellent season they posted this year.

Records were set in nearly every event. Among the standouts were Harold Aker, shot putter-hurdler; Randy Hartmen. miler; Ken Howe, long jumper; and Dave Johnson, high jumper.

Great things can be expected from Orange Glen's future track teams as each member strives to better himself.

The tennis team, led by Most Valuable Player Jim Mulder, so far has blanked Fallbrook 28-0 and thumped San Dieguito 27 1/2 - 1/2. Though the stiffer competition was yet to come, Orange Glen's varsity tennis team showed promise of going all the way.

Golf

With Coach David Chappie leading his golfers from one match to another, the newly formed group gained the needed experience and confidence to make up a fine team.

Paced through most of the season by sophomore Ray Nicol, the golfers showed much depth and valance for the gold season.

Girls' Sports

Orange Glen High School has one of the most successful girls' physical education programs in the country. As teachers, Miss Anglim, Mrs. Nichols, and Mrs. Vernon, realize that in order for a student to be strong in mind, she must also be physically fit. Not only do they teach the rules of the games, but they also promote good sportsmanship in an effort to help the girls get along well with others. With a variety of activities available, all of the girls are able to excel in at least one of their favorite sports. Such sports include soft ball, volley tennis, track and field events, and the newly-formed "varsity" hockey team. We can all be extremely proud of our girls' physical education for it contributes greatly to the curriculum of Orange Glen High.

SOFTBALL: A perfect pitch.

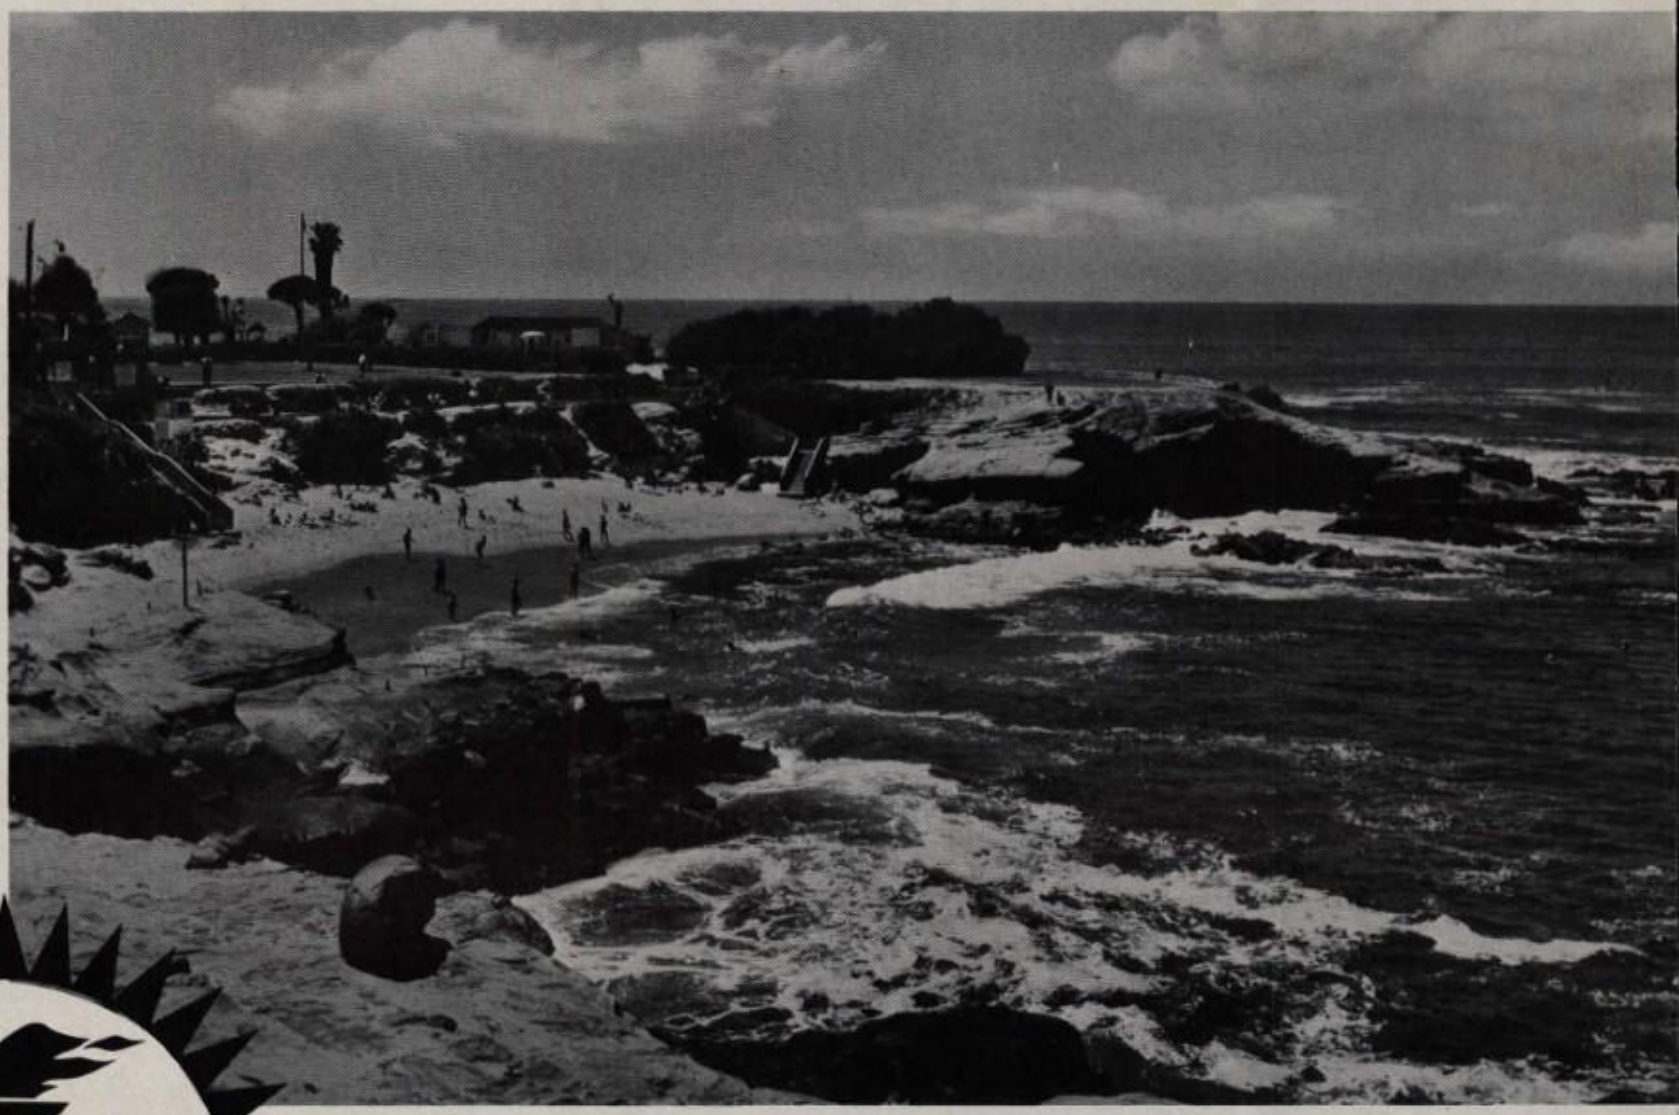
Epilogue



Busy sounds coming from the Yearbook Class have ceased. The 1965 "Torch" is finished. A photo album, campus description, historical document, and record of activities have been the object of the "Torch effort. Work for these 25 people has filled afternoons, evenings, and weekends for an entire year. The dummy book filled with third copy triplicate forms, sitting on the advisor's desk, represents the finished book - the final product of much preparation, much work, and much worry.

The task of the staff has been lessened by the patience and assistance of many groups and individuals who have been vitally interested in the success of this publication ... Mr. Damelio, Yearbook Advisor; Mr. Ross, Principal; the Office Staff; and the R. Wallace Pischel Publishing Company. To these people we wish to give a grateful "THANK - YOU."
